EDITORIAL

The majority of the papers published in this volume were presented at the Eleventh Pacific Science Congress of the Royal Society of New Zealand held in Auckland in February 1965. Dr Duff contributed a summary of the Rarotongan expedition and Mr C. D. Smart contributed the paper on Kabara, in order to supply a complete coverage of the activities undertaken by New Zealand archaeologists working through grants from the National Science Foundation. In addition, Mr J. B. Palmer supplied a paper on Petroglyphs in Tonga as a complement to the paper of Chatham Islands dendroglyphs. Mr J. Golson rewrote his substantial paper on theoretical considerations in New Zealand archaeology for this volume.

We wish to thank the following contributors:-

Dr R. Duff, Director, Canterbury Museum, Christchurch.

Mr L. R. Cowell, Anthropology Dept., University of Otago, Dunedin.

Miss J. Davidson, Auckland University, at present working in the Pacific.
